1. The Junkers-Dessau torpedo motor (KM-8) construction group is now located in Makhach-Kala, on the Caspian Sea.

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment: This is the first post-deportation news of the KM-8 group. An earlier report, dated 13 December 1946, stated that boxes of KM-8 material had been shipped to the Leningrad Naval Experimentation Station.

2. Among the Germans still detained at Oranienburg (Z67) in March 1947 are a number of former Junkers-Dessau personnel. The following have been interned since December 1946 and January 1947:

Ing. Hagedorn and six colleagues, who specialized in jet motors.

Ing. Grasborn (Grasborn ?) and fourteen other men, all specialists in aircraft rocket propellants.

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment: Source of Paragraph 1 above reported, as of 19 January 1947, "A number of engineers left Dessau during the last week in January, but no information is available as to their destination...."
